

“Confidence When You Don’t Have Control”

Daniel 2:1-49

The Message in a Sentence . . .

When you cannot know what is coming, trust the God who knows it and rules it.

Reasons for Confidence in Uncertainty. . .

- Only God can reveal what you cannot know (2:1-30).

- Only God can rule what you cannot control (2:31-49).

Reflect then Act. . .

- Reflect: Where right now is my peace most tied to an outcome God has not given me to control, and how is that grasping for control showing up in my thoughts, prayers, or conversations?
- Act: Identify one uncertainty you are carrying this week, write down what belongs to your faithfulness and what belongs only to God’s sovereignty, then surrender that to God each morning and possibly tell one trusted Christian where you are tempted to grasp for control.
